Overview and Background

- Annually, Yale regional clubs and individual alumni celebrate and recognize outstanding secondary school junior class scholar-citizens through the Yale Alumni Book Award.
- This program started in Taipei in 2024.
- There is one book award given at each participating school.
- Each participating school's officials determine their school's student recipient.
- This award includes an appropriate book that includes a Yale bookplate inscribed with student's name, date of award, and Yale alumni sponsor.
- This award reflects a belief in the students' potential and the Yale alumni community's hope that students will pursue their dreams.

Eligibility and Qualifications

- Students currently in their junior (next to final) year of high school (高中二年級在學學生).
- Students who have demonstration both exemplary scholarship and citizenship.
- "Scholarship" reflects intellectual promise and may be demonstrated through performance in a broad range of classes or alternatively, though excellence in more focused academic interests.
- "Citizenship" reflects outstanding personal character and may be demonstrated in numerous ways and avenues (for example, but not limited to, school-related activities, non-school related activities, volunteer activities, artistic performances, etc.).

Note: The Yale Alumni Book Award is sponsored by individual alumni/ alumni clubs with support from the Yale Alumni Association and has no relationship to the Yale University Admissions office.
